

praying inMission

cmsireland
equipping the church in mission

Toti Jacob Finosa

CMEC, Kyangwali refugee settlement, Uganda

Please pray for Toti Jacob

Toti is the founder and director of the Christian Mission Empowerment Centre in Kyangwali refugee settlement, Uganda. Central to peace building and restoration for those living in the settlement, Toti's ministry seeks to help everyone find hope and meaning despite very challenging circumstances.

At its core, this means education – from nursery school children right through to adults at the vocational training college. All are welcomed and encouraged.

Points for prayer

- ❖ For powerful fellowship that will bring people to Christ and heal trauma.
- ❖ Peace in the world and above all the protection of almighty God.
- ❖ The establishment of a school that can offer meaningful education based on Christian values.
- ❖ The establishment of a full VTC that empowers households to live economically independent.
- ❖ To offer opportunities for sustainable income generating activity.

In all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight. [Proverbs 3:6]

To find out more about Toti Jacob, contact

info@cmsireland.org

01 4970931 (Dublin)

028 90775020 (Belfast)

To get CMSI's latest news, sign up to our monthly email

www.cmsireland.org

and follow us on social media

