Growing in God

Activity:

Draw a picture to show that:

- as Christians we must love God and
- as Christians we must love our neighbour

PRAYER

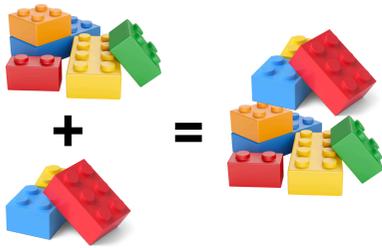

Father God, thank you for your love – that you want us to be honest and real with you. Help us to live and love others the way you want us to. Amen

Being FAIR

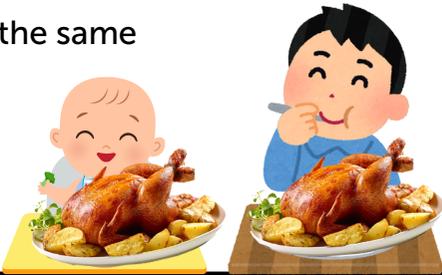

Equal/Same

Fair

VS everyone gets what they need

Think about the situations below. Circle if they are fair, equal, or both and talk about why with an adult. Remember to consider if equal is fair.

I always have to eat the same amount of food as my adult. 	Fair Equal Both
During school assemblies, the younger kids get to sit near the stage and the older kids are in the back of the room. 	Fair Equal Both
At the school library, each student can borrow up to 3 books. 	Fair Equal Both

Activity:

Prayer Jar

1. Fill your jar with layers of different dried food. Make sure they are all equal in size!
2. Cut out the prayer tag.

3. Add some string, tie it around your jar, bring it home.

4. Share this prayer with your family.

PRAYER

Father God, thank you that you see so much more than we can see. Help us to see beyond ourselves, to the world around us and the people in it. Help this bigger picture give us bigger hearts and a stronger desire to be more generous like you. Amen

MEMORY VERSE

“He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

Micah 6:8

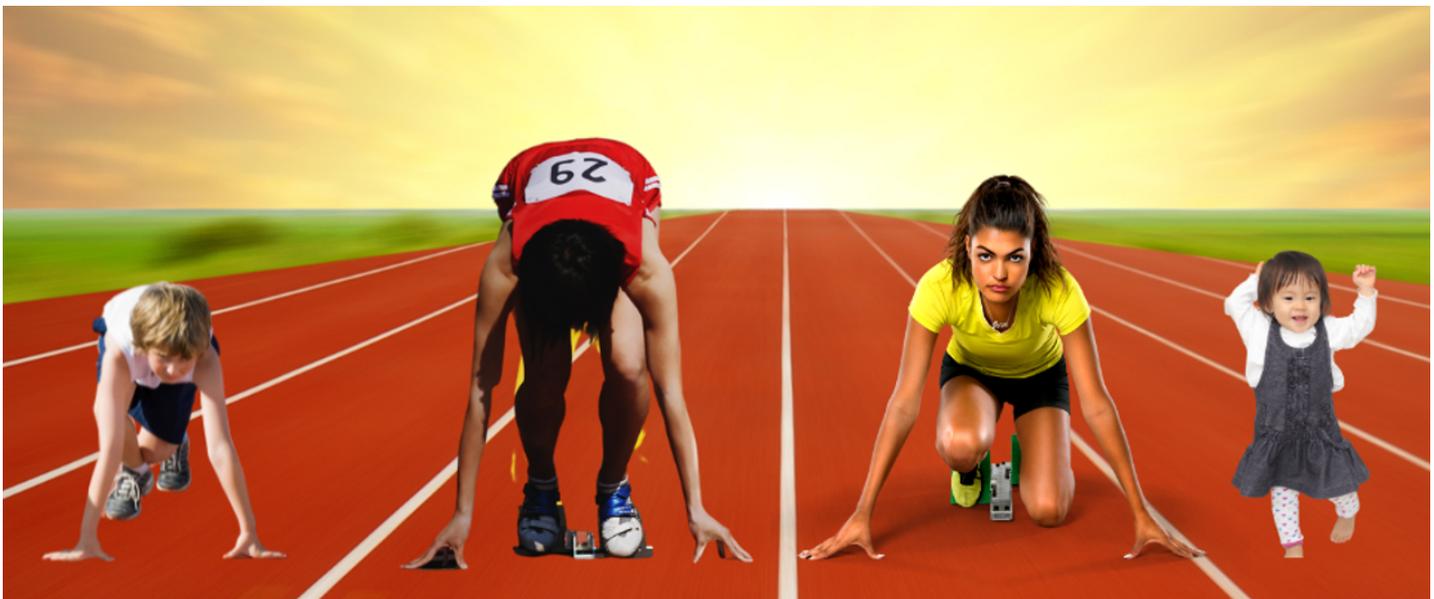

Session 3

Equal value
Different starting point

Wacky Races

These runners are all starting at the same point but this isn't a fair race. Why?

Talk with your grown up about how this isn't a fair race.

Some of us start out with more than others. This gives us an advantage. We don't always see our advantage. This makes it difficult for things to be truly fair.

PRAYER

Father God, help us to remember that together we can be part of changing things that are unfair and unjust. Help us to have the courage to do justice and love one another well. Amen

MEMORY VERSE

“He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

Micah 6:8
