Introducing CMS Ireland

Who we are

CMSI (Church Mission Society Ireland) is a Christian mission organisation that exists to help God's people engage in God's mission. We make connections between different parts of God's global family, and we equip churches and individuals as they work together to share God's transforming love.

CMSI is part of the global CMS family, which was established in 1799 with a threefold focus:

- the abolition of the slave trade
- social reform at home
- world evangelisation

CMSI's own story started in 1814, with the formation of the Hibernian Church Missionary Society. Since then, we've worked with the Church - in Ireland and across the world - as it responds to both spiritual and physical needs.

Our history, identity and most of our work is associated with the Anglican Communion, but we work across denominations to equip the Church in mission.

How we work

CMSI's work is shaped by our commitment to a number of guiding principles...

- Relationships: valuing people and prioritising personal connections in all that we do. Recognising the value of face-to-face encounters.
- Partnership within God's global family: striving for two-way exchange - giving and receiving; promoting interconnectedness and interdependence.
- Respecting and responding to our global partners: prioritising those things that matter most to our partners. Recognising our partners' expertise and authority. Listening to one another and sharing ideas together.
- Long-term faithfulness to our global partners: standing with our partners in hard places, through difficult times. Sharing their joys and sorrows. Journeying together.
- Serving the whole Church as it engages in mission: inspiring, equipping and facilitating God's people, as the body of Christ, to fulfil their mission calling; working across Ireland and with our global partners.
- Working with the local church, wherever that may be: championing local expressions of mission; encouraging churches in Ireland and our global partners to help one another live out God's transforming love in their own communities.
- A holistic approach to mission: embracing biblical principles and following Christ's example in bringing life in all its fullness. Promoting and practicing mission that is integral in nature: both spiritual and physical; both evangelism and social justice; both proclamation and demonstration.

Our Strategic Priorities

CMSI is currently part-way through a five-year strategic plan under the title: connect, equip, transform. The various aims and objectives that make up this plan support the following five priority areas:

Priority 1 Communicate effectively CMSI's central tenet of God's transforming love and inspire others to share in this vision of mission.

Priority 2 Support the Church ministering in challenging contexts.

Priority 3 Grow a more diversified and enriching CMSI family.

Priority 4 Engage more deeply and widely with churches across our island.

Priority 5 Secure a sustainable future by adapting operations and structures.

Our Global Partners

CMSI currently works in relationship with 22 global partners in 11 places. These are dioceses, churches and Christian organisations that are engaged in holistic mission within their own context.

Our relationships with these global partners provide the context for all of work, whether it's sending teams, organising mission placements for individuals, facilitating visits to Ireland from the global church, sharing stories of God at work or producing resources to help inspire and equip churches.

CMSI Statement of Faith

What we believe...

..about God

- We believe that God is the creator of the universe, of our world and of humankind – whom he made in his image
- We believe that the Bible reveals God as triune: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit
- We believe that we are loved unconditionally by our Father God, who adopts us into his family and invites us to participate in his work of mission
- We believe that Jesus – the word made flesh – is the Messiah, promised to God’s people throughout scripture. Through his death on the cross, Jesus took upon himself the sin of the world, bearing the full penalty for sin. By faith in Christ and by his grace, our relationship with God is restored and we find salvation
- We believe that through his life, death and resurrection, Jesus reveals God’s transforming love and power and shows us how to live within the Kingdom of God
- We believe that the same Holy Spirit who empowered Jesus’ ministry is at work today, empowering and equipping God’s people

..about the Bible

- We believe and submit to the Bible as the inspired and authoritative word of God
- We believe that the Bible reveals God’s character, his purposes and his heart for justice, redemption and for the restoration and renewal of humanity and all of creation

..about the Church

- We believe that Christians, God’s people, have been adopted into a global family that is the worldwide church. Christ is the head of this Church
- We believe that the Church has been called to love God and to love others. Worship, mission and discipleship are the inseparable priorities of the Church

..about Mission

- We believe that mission is the shared responsibility of the whole church – every disciple, every community of faith
- We believe that God’s mission is concerned with making disciples, with proclaiming and extending the Kingdom of God, with sharing God’s transforming love and grace with the world
- We believe that God’s mission, as revealed in the Bible, is holistic in nature – concerned with both proclamation and demonstration, both spiritual and physical

As an organisation whose roots and identity are strongly embedded in the Anglican Church, CMSI seeks to uphold and champion the Five Marks of Mission of the Anglican Communion:

- To proclaim the good news of the kingdom
- To teach, baptise and nurture new believers
- To respond to human need by loving service
- To transform unjust structures of society, to challenge violence of every kind and pursue peace and reconciliation
- To strive to safeguard the integrity of creation, and sustain and renew the life of the earth

In CMSI, our primary calling is to equip the church in mission: we work with churches in Ireland and with our global partners to help God’s people engage in God’s mission. We recognise and embrace the diversity that exists throughout God’s worldwide church, and we seek to walk in patient, respectful partnership with those who share our core beliefs, as outlined above.
